Dear Sir,

Greetings from NSOU ICT!!

This is to request you to kindly deliver a/v lecture for the following topics of 15 min each as per your convenient date and time:*15 Mins Lecture - (6 topics from 1-13)

1. What do you understand by the term 'research'? Elaborate on the various purposes for which research is undertaken – why and when do people undertake research?
2. What is 'qualitative' research? In what ways does it differ from quantitative research? How can you decide which type of research you need to undertake?
3. 'Research in language teaching can be of practical use'. Do you agree? Give reasons to support your position.
4. 'Research is a quest of discovery'. Do you agree? Give reasons or arguments to support your position.
5. 'Doing research in Literature is easier than doing research in Language'. Do you agree? Elaborate and give reasons for your view.
6. 'Research in literature does not require any data'. Give your own views and present valid arguments for your position.
7. For research in Literature, what kind of data and tools do you need to use? Name them and briefly describe each.
8. 'We do research because of the prestige it brings us'. Critically comment on this view of research and provide arguments for your position.
9. "Research may be done alone, but it is never done in isolation." Discuss the validity of this statement with reference to research in ELT.
10. How would you set up a research proposal? Elaborate on the various stages or components you think are relevant.
11. How many types of research are there? How do you decide which type is suitable for your purpose?
12. Discuss the four types of knowledge in research findings.
13. 'Research is summarizing what other people have done or written'. Critically comment on this view of research.

Kindly carry necessary academic script and powerpoint presentation as required, picture/scan copy if any and please avoid any shade of green in the entire attire (studio requirement).

Our heartfelt thanks for your kind consent as your expert delivery will benefit many rural students without direct access to face to face education.

Kindly let us know your convenient time and date for delivering the lecture at the venue:
